Marble, Finish and Lettering First Class

"The tombstone arrived here without a blemish and is much better than any I could get here for double the money. The marble, finish and lettering are first class. Everyone that sees it praises it. You will get more orders from this vicinity."

W. H. Pester,
Oldham, S. D.

Everyone Likes It

"The memorial bought of you some time ago is O.K. We are very well pleased with it in every way. Everyone who has seen it liked it, and you will get all orders from here when tombstones are needed."

Herbert Warner,
Sayner, Wis.

Pleased with Monument and Workmanship

"I want to say that I am well pleased with both the monument and with the workmanship. Also my friends and neighbors say they think it is more than they would have expected for the price. I am sure I saved at least one-third by ordering of you."

Rosalie Highsmith,
Flat Rock, Ill.

Neighbors Plan to Have Stones Like This One

"We want to tell you that we are very much pleased with the tombstone we bought of you. It is very nice for the price we paid for it, and neighbors and friends have asked us where we got it and what price it was, and said that they would like to have one just like it."

Tjark Rients,
Flanagan, Ill.

Better Than Expected For the Price

"I was more than pleased with the stone I received from you. It was much better than I expected for the price. The workmanship and lettering are perfect. I have another stone to buy and will certainly send you the order."

Mrs. Charles Campbell,
Mexico, Mo.

A Beautiful Monument at Small Cost

"The monument arrived in good condition. There wasn't even the slightest scratch in all the long way to Minnesota. It is just as smooth as a mirror. Many people did not believe that we could get such a monument for so little money. I have been buying from you for 17 years and always saved money."

Fritz Franzmeier,
Holloway, Minn.

Saved One-Third on a Beautiful Stone

"The tombstone which I received about thirteen months ago is very satisfactory. I have seen and priced several tombstones and they were not equal to the one you sent me. Figuring every cost, I saved about one-third by buying from you. Relatives and friends all like it very much. The price was considerably lower than we expected."

Mrs. Otto Langs,
Sequin, Tex.

Only a Monument of Flawless Stone, Perfect in Design, Is Worthy of Its Sacred Mission

SOMEHOW, the placing of a Monument for those we hold dear brings us healing comfort. Perhaps because we love them, and their going has left loneliness in our hearts, we can not bear the thought that this grave shall ever be forgotten.

And so enduring stone—an expression of our love—becomes the sentinel which guards their memory through the years—a record which neither time nor forgetting can efface. Surely we can pay them no more loving tribute than this—to choose a monument which, in each detail of workmanship and material, shall be worthy of such a mission.

A Good Stone Lasts Forever

Only a perfect stone, absolutely free from blemish or weak vein, can resist the constant waste of weather. To insure that the monuments bought from us shall be perfect, we safeguard you in four ways—we have them cut from the best stone available; we select each piece with utmost care as to color, quality and flawlessness; we inspect rigidly each finished monument to be sure we have carried out your orders; and, before shipping, we again test the stone for the slightest sign of imperfection; and in addition, you are protected by our guarantee to satisfy you or return your money.

The Story of Granite and Marble

Our Gray Granite comes from the granite region of Barre (pronounced Barry), Vermont—for fifty years the source of the gray granite from which the most beautiful and costly monuments are made. Millions of years in the mysterious laboratories of the earth have created a stone so hard and uniformly flawless that it has set the standard for gray granite—and the knowledge that your monument is made from Barre Granite is all the assurance you need of its high quality.

Our Majestic Red Granite comes from Missouri. In quality it is just as uniform, as dependable and enduring as the gray granite. It has a deep rich red color which becomes a light pinkish hue when hammered; and when polished it becomes a deep glowing red. Lettering or designs are unusually prominent and effective on red granite.

Our Blue Veined and White Clouded Marble comes from the quarries of Vermont. And Vermont marble needs no introduction. For years it has been considered the most beautiful American marble for this use.

Marble is a much softer stone than granite, and can not be expected to withstand the effect of weathering so long. However, it can be worked much more easily and with less expense, and will always be a favorite material for tombstones—especially for children, because it can be sculptured to such delicate, graceful designs. Although the polish will disappear in time, the stone and lettering will last for generations.

Our Monuments Cost Less

When you compare our prices with others, you will be surprised to see how much less our stones will cost you. We have sacrificed nothing, either in quality of stone or excellence of workmanship, to achieve these lower prices. Our monuments cost you less because they are cut, marked and finished at the quarry. You are paying no intermediate profits, no unnecessary transportation.

By this arrangement we can not only give you less expensive monuments, but we can give you better ones. The men who select the stone, the artists who design the monuments, and the sculptors who engrave them, are all experts who have grown up in their work. They take pride in giving you only their best.

At these low prices no grave should go unmarked—no family lot be without a fitting monument. Among the beautiful designs on the following pages you will find the Monument or Marker you like—and it will be within your means.

The "Trinity"

The "Trinity"

THE family Monument becomes the family record. And the Trinity, beautiful and dignified, is a memorial of which any family may be proud. The broad main slab is plain, except for a simple lily decoration, and a deep cut tracing which forms a narrow border and emphasizes the graceful lines of the stone.

The Trinity may be had in a polished finish as shown (front and back of main block finely polished; edges, curved top and entire base sand finished); or the entire monument in the new tooled finish. This tooling leaves a fine irregular grooving in the marble which hides the markings of the stone, but leaves a soft, dull surface, equally effective in the Blue Veined or White Clouded Marble. Either finish may be had at the same price. In ordering be sure to state which finish you wish. All lettering is extra. Lettering shown is 4-inch Roman, V-sunk; a pleasing size and style for the largest monument. For other styles and prices, see Page 23. Markers shown are not included in price. For description see Page 12.

The "Concordia"

The "Concordia"

THE simple, stately dignity of the Concordia makes it an especially beautiful and appropriate family Monument. This broad, clean cut design may be had either in Blue Veined or White Clouded Vermont Marble. In either of these beautiful stones the simple oak leaf decoration, deep cut in a panel, and the lettering will stand out nicely and give it the distinction which such a well chosen family Monument deserves. The front of the main block is highly polished, which brings out the delicate irregular markings of the marble. The narrow edges, the top with its recessed corners and the entire base have a smooth, dull finish which does not show the pattern of the stone.

Lettering is 4-inch Gothic, V-sunk—the appropriate size for the largest size monument. Although this is a very good choice for this design, you may prefer another of the styles shown and priced on Page 23. All lettering is extra.

sizes the pleasing outlines of the stone. Sides and gently sloping top of main block have a smooth sanded finish. The entire base is also sand finished.

The engraved design is included in the cost, but all lettering is extra. Lettering is: Family name, 4-inch Gothic, raised in a panel; name and dates, 2½-inch Gothic, V-sunk. This is a very suitable style and size for the largest size stone. Other styles and prices are shown on Page 23.

The "Columbia"

THE knowledge that the gray granite of this Monument comes from the quarries at Barre, Vermont, is all the assurance you need of its high quality. For years Barre Gray Granite has been acclaimed the best stone available for monuments and tombstones, not only because of its beauty, but because its freedom from blemishes makes it practically imperishable.

In each detail of design and workmanship, the Columbia measures up to the standard of the fine stone from which it is cut. The front of the main block is mirror polished, which brings out the deep gray tone of the stone. At the slightly rounded upper corners simple designs of leaves and tendrils are traced, and a narrow traced border frames the inscription. Back, top and edges of main block are rock finished, as is the entire base except the bevel, which is finely hammered. Lettering is Gothic, V-sunk; the family name in 4-inch size and given names and dates in 1½-inch lettering. While this is a very good choice for this design, other styles and prices are shown on Page 23. All lettering is extra.

The "Ashland"

THE simple arch design of the Ashland recalls the quaint church yard tablets of half a century ago. The front of the main block is highly polished, bringing out the rich dark coloring in the granite. Sides and back and arched top are rock finished, as is the base except the sloping bevel, which is finely hammered. The Ashland is furnished in the famous Dark Gray Barre Granite—the best gray granite known for this purpose. This Monument is a very fair example of the saving possible for you when you can buy direct from the quarry. The lettering shown is not included in the price. Family name is in 3½-inch Gothic, traced in panel—a style well suited to a polished stone because the letters stand out so effectively. Names and dates are in 2-inch and 1½-inch Gothic, V-sunk. For other styles and prices, see Page 23.

In order to help you choose the best and most suitable lettering for the monument you buy, we have shown on each stone in this book the most appropriate style and size of letter for the largest size monument of that design. You are free, however, to select any style of lettering which you wish; and on Page 23 we show the styles, and tell you briefly on what stones they will be most effective and appropriate.

Military or fraternal emblems will be suitable on either of these monuments. Official designs and prices are shown on Page 22.

The "Cambridge"

FOR a family Monument—stately, graceful and enduring—the Cambridge is a stone of which you will always be proud. It is cut from Gray Barre Granite, the most imperishable stone obtainable for this purpose. The main block gives the impression of grace, in keeping with the gently tapered sides and curved top.

Front of main block has hammered finish and is decorated with a simple design deeply cut into the stone. Sides, top and back are rock finished.

Against the hammered face of the Cambridge, deep cut U-sunk lettering will be the most effective. So on this stone, unless you request otherwise, we will cut your inscription in U-sunk lettering at the same price we charge for the ordinary V-sunk lettering. Lettering shown is: Family name, 3-inch Roman U-sunk; given name, 1½-inch Roman U-sunk. For prices, see V-sunk lettering on Page 23.

Gray Barre Granite

OUR Dark Gray Barre Granite comes from the famous granite district around Barre (pronounced Barry), Vermont. For more than fifty years it has been used for the finest monuments; and because of its unvarying uniformity in color and quality and remarkable freedom from defects, it has come to be the standard by which all gray granites are measured.

Barre Granite has a fine grained, crystalline texture, and a warm rich coloring which does not fade or discolor. Because it is so hard it can be worked, shipped and erected with little danger of breaking.

Many granites are spoiled for monument use because of spots, streaks or iron deposits. We guarantee our Gray Barre Granite to be free from all such blemishes or defects.

Top, sides and back are rock finished. Base is rock finished except hammered bevel. Lettering shown is 3½-inch raised Gothic, suitable for largest stone. All lettering is extra. Majestic Red Granite for Permanence

It is the tiny drops of moisture seeping into the crevices of the rocks cause them to break down, chip off and finally wear away. This seeping moisture, expanding under the sun's rays and contracting with the frost, strains and pulls at the firm crystals of the rock, until it finally forces them apart.

Majestic Red Granite is almost proof against the effect of the weather; it absorbs only one-fifth as much moisture as most granites and so it is far less liable to be injured by sun and frost. The bright, rich coloring, which makes Red Granite Monuments so beautiful, will endure for centuries without becoming dull and faded.

Fraternal or Military Emblems

May Be Carved on Any Monument

THE placing of a fraternal or military emblem on the monument is a pleasing and appropriate custom. Any of the emblems shown here can be engraved on the stone you have selected, at small additional cost. If the fraternal order or military insignia you wish is not shown here, send us a picture of it, and we will be glad to make it for you.

Traced emblems are made only on granite, they are cut through the polish only, but will remain as long as the stone endures.

Carved emblems are cut about one-eighth of an inch into the stone. On granite this requires more time, accounting for the difference in price. For the carved emblem, the panel is sunk by cutting deeply around the design, which gives it the raised effect.

No matter what emblem you choose, you can feel assured that the design will be absolutely correct and the work be perfectly done. Our guarantee to satisfy you or return your money, guards you against disappointment in workmanship or materials.

Important Information About Lettering

THE lettering is as important to the beauty of your monument as the design itself, and only our most skilled sculptors are entrusted with the cutting of inscriptions.

It is important that the style, size and arrangement of the lettering be carefully planned; and in order to help you, we have suggested the proper lettering for each of our stones. Unless you prefer some other style, you will be pleased and satisfied with our suggestion.

All lettering, unless otherwise stated, is extra. When you have decided on the size and style of letter you wish, you can easily figure the cost by referring to the list below, which gives the price per letter for every style and size.

When your order is received, we will send you a typewritten copy of the inscription for your approval. Your wishes will be carried out absolutely, unless you have ordered a style of lettering which we can not cut—such as polished letters on a hammered or rock faced stone, or a size so much too large or too small that we feel you will not be satisfied with it. In that case, our sculptors will use their own good judgment in selecting the proper letter.

If you wish us to arrange the lettering, send us the article number and size of the monument, and the inscription wanted, and we will gladly tell you the proper lettering and the cost of your monument complete.

The reason for the greater cost of lettering on granite is that granite is so much harder, and therefore more difficult to engrave.

Regular Verse Letter on Marble

VERSE letters like this are used only for epitaphs or verses on marble monuments. Such verses are very frequently used on marble stones because the material is soft and can be cut easily and inexpensively with these small, graceful letters. When you order a verse or epitaph on a marble stone, this letter will be used, and the sculptor will decide what size will be most suitable and effective. For this reason, we quote only one size at a single price. On page 24 you will find a list of quotations popularly used for this purpose and price for each. This letter is not suitable for inscriptions, and can not be ordered for names, dates, etc. In small size only.

Epitaphs on Granite

THE regular verse letter used for epitaphs on marble does not show up well on granite, and so is never used. When you order an epitaph or verse engraved or traced in a granite stone, our sculptors will use a V-sunk or traced letter of a suitable size. For verses appropriate for epitaphs, see Page 24

Verses

Suitable for Inscriptions

It is an old and beautiful custom to carve a verse or quotation upon the tomb, expressive of our love and sorrow. In this list you may find the words which will most fittingly express your own feelings. Do not be confused by the two prices quoted. Granite is so much harder than marble that it takes longer, and is consequently more expensive to carve. In marble, epitaph will be carved in regular verse letters only (shown on Page 23) In granite, V-sunk letters of suitable size will be used.

For your convenience, each quotation has an article number, which is all you need to give when sending us your order. If you wish to use a verse not given here, send us a copy of it and we will gladly tell you how much it will cost.

Suggestions for Setting Monuments

Roll base on wood rollers into place on the foundation. To protect stone from chipping, leave crating on until it is in final position.

Remove crate, and be sure stone sets firm, even and true on foundation.

Build incline of blocks and planks, and on wood rollers roll main block into position on the base.

Remove the crate, and look at stone from every side to be sure that it stands perfectly level and true on base.

Simple Directions—Do the Work Yourself

BEFORE erecting a Monument it is necessary to put in a foundation from three to five feet deep, depending on the size of the stone. The best foundation, especially for a granite or heavy marble stone, is of concrete; but for lighter monuments, brick or stone foundations are satisfactory.

Many cemeteries have their own rules governing the building of the foundation, or prefer to do the work themselves for a stated price. If you desire to build the foundation yourself, and there are no special rules governing it, we suggest the following method:

Excavate a hole three to five feet deep, the size of the lower base.

Concrete Foundation: Mix concrete of one part cement to four parts gravel or crushed stone, and fill excavation. Level off the top about two inches below the surface of the ground. The size at the top should be two inches smaller than the base of the monument.

Foundations should be built at least two weeks before the monument is set; for if the base is placed on cement not entirely set, the cement will stain the stone.

Stone Foundation: Put in a layer of several inches of stone, gravel or brick; mix cement and sand, one part to two, and run it into the crevices until level. Put in another layer of gravel or stone, pour in the cement; and continue putting in courses of stone and cement in this manner until within two inches of top. Taper top in about two inches all around, so foundation will not show. Be sure to leave the top level.

Setting a Granite Monument

PLACE the base in position on the foundation by means of wood bars and rollers.

When it is in place put a piece of wedge lead, which is shipped with the stone, on each of the four corners of the base. Set the main block on the base by rolling it up an inclined plane of blocks and planks as shown in the illustration. The lead leaves a space of about one-eighth of an inch between the base and the main block. Make sure that you have the stones perfectly level and in perfect line when looking at it from all sides. In case there is a cap, it is then set in place, first putting small lead on the corners of the main block, just as you did on the four corners of the base.

Then cut a strip of wedge lead the right length, put the narrow edge into the joint between the base and the main block and drive it carefully and evenly into the joint. Use a wood mallet and a block of wood. Do not use an iron hammer, for it might damage the granite. Drive the wedge lead into the joints on all four sides. Trim the lead off with a knife or other sharp instrument.

Go over the lead again with the mallet and wood block, so as to seal all joints completely. This fills up the small spaces, removes all uneven spots in the lead, and prevents water from entering and freezing, thereby avoiding the possibility of any part of the stone shifting or cracking.

When the monument is in place and the wedge lead has been fitted to the joints, the monument should be well washed with soap and water. It is then complete and will stand firmly for generations.

Setting a Marble Monument

WHEN erecting a Marble Monument as illustrated above, first move the base into position by means of wood bars and wood rollers, taking care that no metal touches the marble, for marble is very easily chipped or bruised. When the base is set, mix some of the cement which we ship with the stone, to a thick paste and spread it over the top and around the center. If dowels are to be used you will find holes already drilled in the marble and the dowels will be packed in one of the crates. The dowels are about one-half inch in diameter and several inches long. They fit into holes in the different sections of marble. Fill the dowel holes in the base and the main block partially with cement and place the dowels in the holes.

Now raise the main block into position by means of planks and rollers. Smaller stones can be lifted easily by one or more men. The cement will be forced up and around the dowels; when the cement hardens it holds the marble sections firmly together. When you set the main block be sure that it is in perfect line with the base.

Wipe off any cement that the weight of the upper stone squeezes out of the joints before the cement has a chance to set and become hard. Repeat these operations if other sections of marble are added. After the sections are all set, go over the entire stone and scrape off all surplus cement while it is easy to remove.

After the sections are all in place, wash the monument thoroughly with soap and water. Follow these suggestions carefully and you will have a monument which will remain erect permanently.

Classic Marble Bench

$47⁵⁰

For Lawn, Garden or Cemetery
Made from Fine, Flawless Vermont Marble

IF you have longed to rest for a moment beside the graves of your dear ones, you know how great would be the comfort as well as the convenience of a seat at your cemetery lot.

The same love and pride which prompted you to choose the finest monument you could afford, will guide you in the choice of this Marble Bench of classic design.

This bench is more than just an inviting seat—it is an ornament which will add to the beauty and dignity of your lot. Like your monument, it is a purchase for all time; and as long as your family lasts it will remain a beautiful piece of workmanship, growing more beautiful with the years. Although its first cost is greater than for a less desirable seat of some other material, you will be more than pleased with your investment.

Or perhaps there is a corner of your lawn or garden where this attractive seat will bring you greater enjoyment of the out of doors; it will improve the appearance and add to the actual value of your home.

Made from the same fine Vermont Marble as our monuments—either Blue Veined or White Clouded. The seat is low and broad, with artistically beveled edges. The supports are extremely graceful in design, giving beauty with sturdy strength. On all surfaces it has a smooth sand blasted finish, fully as beautiful and even more enduring than a polish.

The marble is selected and tested for the slightest sign of imperfection, just as with our monuments. Design and workmanship are in every way as excellent as in benches costing a great deal more; but because we allow you to buy direct from the quarries, we are able to offer you this big saving.

Bench is shipped in three pieces, but you yourself can easily set it up. Legs are fastened to seat with metal dowels, holes for which are drilled at the proper points. Dowels and cement are included, and directions for cementing marble are given on Page 26 of the Monument Catalogue.

Total Height, 1 foot 6 inches. Seat: 5 feet long; 1 foot 4 inches wide; 3 inches thick.
Legs: 1 foot 1 inch wide; 1 foot 3 inches high; 4 inches thick. Shipping weight, 480 pounds.

253 H 8185—Blue Veined Marble.....$47.50

253 H 8186—White Clouded Marble.....$55.00

We Chose Vermont Stone—Because It Is the Best

MARBLE and Granite are graded according to beauty, texture, hardness and freedom from imperfections. There are many different grades. Of all the monument stone found in America, the grades that are generally recognized as the best come from the quarries of Vermont. That is why we have gone to the famous Vermont quarries for our Blue Vein and White Clouded Marble and Gray Barre Granite.

A monument must stand constant exposure and if it is a good stone it will retain its beauty for many generations. That is why you should carefully consider quality when comparing our prices with others. Remember that Vermont stones like ours, for half a century have been recognized as best. Yet, our prices are often less than you would pay locally for stones of a greatly inferior grade.
